

Fourth Grade

Blizzard Bag from Library

Muddy Brook Specialists believe in the importance of educating the whole child. We value creative problem solving, self-expression, health and well-being, and imaginative play. We also value family time spent working together developing children's skills and conversation.

On this FIRST blizzard bag day, LIBRARY will be the specialist activity for ALL fourth graders, regardless of whether that's your missed special for the day.

Choose ONE just-right-fit book you are currently reading and choose to do ONE of the following activities on the attached paper:

1. Pick a main character in your story and draw a Wanted Poster (with info) on the attached paper.
2. Pick a non-fiction book you're reading and write and illustrate 2 facts that you learned in your reading.
3. If you're reading a biography, make believe you are a reporter and write down 3 questions you wish you could ask the person about their life.
4. Write an acrostic poem using the title of the book. Make sure your acrostics each have to do with the story.
5. Choose a main character in your story and make a Sensory Cube showing something the character has heard, seen, smelled, tasted and felt. Draw on the paper and then cut, fold and glue your cube together.
